

Beacon Oral Specialists Expands into the Northeast; Partners with New England Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery

Four-surgeon Group Provides Full-Scope care, Specializes in Pediatric Oral Surgery

DALLAS (May 31, 2022) – Beacon Oral Specialists, a portfolio company of Blue Sea Capital, announced today that it has entered into a strategic agreement with New England Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery with three practice locations in metro Boston, expanding Beacon’s presence along the Eastern seaboard into New England.

Drs. David Beanland, Peter Vellis, Albert Kang, and Tony Kang practice the full scope of oral surgery with an additional focus on advanced anesthesia protocols and expertise in treating patients of all ages, including offering comprehensive and advanced choices for pediatric outpatient anesthesia. All of the surgeons are PALS (pediatric advanced life support) trained and certified, and remain active with continued education in pediatric anesthesia. In addition, Drs. Beanland and Vellis are both military veterans having served in the U.S. Army and the U.S. Navy respectively.

“QUOTE” NEOMS
